One good turn deserves another. One good rain deserves another.

Low neck shoes are great conveniences for the mosquito.

The tango seems to be on all the legs. -Aniston Slim and Hot Blood. Well, what of it? doesn't the other numbers need a rest?

A weekly paper has to get under pretty good headway to get ahead of the Greenville Advocate, which shows a better patronage than most papers published in town the size of Greenville.

Draw a draft on Lacy and see if he will come to the aid of the state just at a time when the state has to tell the collector to come back. Buddy or you will have to cry that over till the first of next month.

We move that the legislature assume Governor O'Neal that the whole key will not be tampered with in order that he may go ahead in safety, and assembly that body to take care of a little outstanding paper.

The people, though they may become excited at times, have a way of settling matters that last but, in the long run. They will mistake this year, but next year they are liable to see those mistakes and correct them. That in the good part of it. We see the remedy the matter.

HOW DOTHAN DOES IT.

How Dothan people get along is a mystery to some people.

It is easy. The people of Dothan stand together on any matter that is good for the town. The citizens fall out and fight with each other but like a lightning married couple when the outsiders interfere, it turns on the disturber.

We have people in Dothan who never get along politically, who never get along much in a business way, but when they go out for something for Dothan they work hand and glove. They are brothers then, and forget the home trouble.

This was shown the other day at the meeting of the bankers when G. H. Malone was made a member of the directors of the regional bank—quite an honor for a Dothan citizen. This was done because the bankers of Dothan attending the meeting got in behind it, with the backing of the other banking interests of this section.

Every time we go out after something for Dothan it comes out all right because Dothan's people stand together.

NEVERLY AN OVERSIGHT.

The Mobile Register says a Montgomery paper that found syndicate it and published it with a Montgomery label, overlooked that the picture showed several ocean going steamships tied up to the wharf. Now Montgomery is pretty far inland for that sort of a thing and there are a lot of inland boats between it and the sea.

The Montgomery paper like the other often up there with a bound one tending to show a picture but mislaid them for their columns and let the cat get by thinking it would help advertise Montgomery silver ware.

BEHIND THE SCENES AT NIGHT

The Andalusian was being noticed by the editor. Brother Duty is not writing those brilliant and sparkling paragraphs of former days. Get back to your English brother or we will have to go back to the weekly medium where you will have more time. Montgomery Times.

Probably the Times doesn't know what the trouble is. Brother Duty has just built him a house. Any one who has built a handsome home knows that the writing came a bound to be neglected slightly during the time and especially when a man and an much capable in the construction of the house, as that man Duty did. If he didn't wait another bright paragraph for a couple of months he should be excusable.

THE UP THE HOLE IN THE STREET

Dothan has more low rent streets than any town in this section. You can easily start out here and run for an hour on good roads of the country unless you get back that and stay inside the corporate limits.

Take all of the streets in Dothan that are not paved and they are rougher than any of the roads of the country unless you get back where they are never worked.

Every little while the street cleaners drag a grader over the streets dragging the concrete blocks and bricks out of the ditches and piling them in the center of the street. The holes are temporarily filled up but the sand dragged in the holes soon dies out and no good comes from it. The holes in the streets could be permanently fixed if they were hauled out and put in them. It wouldn't take much work to keep the streets in good shape.

DEALING WITH FLIES

The Hattiesburg Mississippi Tribune, this afternoon, the price way to deal with the fly situation.

1. Don't buy any food from any dealer who refuses to fly the fly.

2. Don't purchase fruits or vegetables offered for sale in unscreened.

3. Don't patronize any dealer who hauls your food through the streets and allows unprotected.

4. Don't eat fresh fruit without thoroughly washing or peeling them.

5. Don't keep garbage or refuse around the house.

6. Don't throw dish water and similar drops into the yard as this draws flies.

7. Don't allow flies to get on the baby.

8. Don't forget to notify the local health officer of any fly nuisance.

9. Saut the fly.

These are all good but they are the essential of dealing with the breeding place of the fly—station and stable refuse. A quarter of a pound of salt dissolved in a gallon of water, or the same amount of copperas or bluestone in a gallon of water, thoroughly sprinkled

THAT PERSONAL LIBERTY PARADE

by the H. H. McNeill

It is said that in Cincinnati a few weeks ago there was a great demonstration made by the liquor people in behalf of what they call personal liberty. It is said that there were 50,000 in the parade—round numbers, maybe 20,000.

Note that it was gotten up by the breweries and liquor dealers whose purposes are to be filled. Certainly history repeats itself. In 1846 when we were told about some fellows who got up a great demonstration and no small stir because their trade was being curtailed. It is written in the Book. For a certain man named Demetrius a silver smith who made silver shrines for Dionys brought no small gains to the craftsmen whom he called to gather with workmen of like occupation and said. Since ye know that in this craft we have our wealth Moreover ye see and hear that not only in Ephesus but almost everywhere in the world this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people saying that they be no gods which are made with hands. So that this our craft is in danger of coming to nought. And when they heard these sayings they were filled with wrath and cried out saying. Great is Diana of the Ephesians. And the whole city was filled with confusion in pouring out together.

With a knowledge of the character of the drunk worship the parade is complete. Many a time just Paul have learned from the local quarters the pouring. With a knowledge of their nature and the foulness of their habits many a time have caught glimpses of drunken dances and drunken processions with screaming high and wild cries and shouts to the pine they tried to excite the multitudes into sympathy with but orgiastic worship which was but too closely connected with the vile debaucheries.

Cincinnati Confusion

But this Cincinnati confusion was orderly. Orders positive and strict were given that no liquor should be drunk during the parade.
Who dared to thus tax the rough hand of a tyrant on the sacred Personal Liberty of these 50,000 loving people and its stern order of prohibition forbade them to drink to the health of their good address. Who the tyrant was EARS that attempt to enforce the orders with threats of fines and imprisonment. Who were these? Of course threatening with fines and imprisonment to run down the parade down the throats of these 50,000 liberty lovers whose parade they were told was to protest against any limitation of their personal liberty to DRINK LIQUOR.

What sons of Diabolus gave instructions so destructive of the Constitutional rights of free men to drink liquor at any time especially on a night like this?

They Are the Same

These same sons of Diabolus are they who give orders to governors legislators congressmen and chairmen of state executive committees this morning point of death to all who use their personal liberty to liquor orders. These are the Diabolus who order their henchmen to corrupt the voter with money and to buy the vote and thus hold a club over the head of any candidate who dares to assert his personal liberty to open his refrigerator. These diabolus are the brewers and distillers. Know no liberty except the which fill their coffers.

But Why Was It Necessary?

That command prohibiting drinking under penalty of fines and imprisonment of prohibition laws the threats of the 50,000 parade was a frank admission that order could not be maintained among them except by taking from them their personal liberty to drink liquor. Will the city work and Hellers know that the chance of drunken would cause that these parade so orderly under prohibition would be a veritable mass of 50,000 if liquor be distributed freely among them. The force they paid a parade with prohibition for that night. Can there be a better or more conclusive argument against the liquor traffic than that furnished by the brewers and distillers on this occasion? Will WILL BRIGADE MUST BE DRY was the slogan for that night. If for that night why not for every night? The only answer is the word would not continue to flow into the till of those who make and sell it.

The Devil Perverts Truth

We are told that the marchers carried transparencies in which there were inscriptions. One of the inscriptions was

Self governing men in the darkest work of God Yes to this we may give assent without hesitation. For why lig or less from the men who carried the banner. Why do they perpetrate this violation of right because it is a law that liquor will govern and do not abide in the sane men. No one has a better opportunity to observe this than the liquor dealer. He has seen the prosperous dragged to the house of poverty he has seen the noble young men brought to crime he

BANDERS-CARLISLE—

A wedding, that to their many friends was much of a surprise, was announced last evening when Mr. Pitt M. Carlisle, of Callaway, and Miss Alma Sanders of Christal Springs, Miss., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Porter on Tarpon street, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Howard Carlisle, brother of the groom, in a very impressive manner. Only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties being present.

Mr. Carlisle is one of the county's most prosperous business men, and is well known throughout the country. He was formerly engaged in the drug business at Dothan, Ala., where he sold out his interest and later moved to Callaway in this county where he has resided with his parents. During the present year he opened up a real estate and insurance office here in Millville where he has built up a lucrative business.

The bride who is one of our most lovable young ladies, came to Millville early last fall and has been employed in the millinery establishment of Mrs. J. C. Porter. During her stay in our midst Mrs. Carlisle has made a host of friends by her strong womanly ways and gentle manners. The many friends of these young people join heartily in wishing for them a most useful and happy journey through life. Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle left immediately after the ceremony for Panama City, where they took the early train Tuesday morning for Montgomery, Ala., where they will visit for a few days. Upon their return they will go out to Callaway where they will make their future home. —St. Andrews (Fla.) Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Y. Baker and children leave Monday for several weeks stay in Norfolk, Va.

Miss Evelyn Harris who has been teaching music in Jacksonville, Ga., will arrive tonight to spend the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Harris.

Mrs. J. H. Jones of Selma, Ala., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Campbell on West Newton street.

DANCE, HONORING VIRTUOS—

A beautiful society event of last evening was the dance given by Mrs. J. E. Henderson in honor of her sister, Miss Minnie Cave, her daughter, Miss Beas Henderson, and her attractive house guests, Miss Abbie Chapman of Geneva, and Miss Frances Campbell of Dawson, Ga.

The Armory was beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns, and streamers, festooned from the corners and sides of the room, and caught with a large bow at the chandelier.

Delicious punch was served during the evening from a block of ice, by Mrs. G. S. Jackson and Mrs. Eliza H. Shen and at midnight a delightful lunch was served.

A grand march was led by Miss Laurelle McLennan and Mr. Clarence Ross. The dancers included Miss Abbie Chapman, Miss Frances Campbell, Miss Louder of Blochfeld, Va., Miss Minnie Cave, Miss Beas Henderson, Miss Laurelle McLennan, Miss Janie Farmer, Miss Robbie Carlisle, Miss Willie Pearl Carter, Miss Marguerite Ghent, Miss Maude Whiddon, Miss Lucile Whiddon and Miss Lucile McClure. As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Dispelled Backache, Headaches and Dizziness.

Piqua, Ohio.—"I would be very ungrateful if I failed to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise it deserves, for I have taken it at different times and it always relieved me when other medicines failed, and when I hear a woman complain I always recommend it. Last winter I was attacked with a severe case of organic weakness. I had backache, pains in my hips and over my kidneys, headache, dizziness, nervousness, had no energy, limbs ached and I was always tired. I was hardly able to do my housework. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on one other occasion, and it had helped me so I took it again and it has built me up, until now I feel like a new woman. You have my hearty consent to use my name and testimonial in any way and I hope it will benefit suffering women."—Mrs. Ophelia Tucker, 431 S. Wayne St., Piqua, Ohio.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

crepe paper and potted plants added grace and beauty to the home.

In the dining room a color scheme of pink and white was used. Streamers of pink and white paper were draped from the windows to the chandelier and caught by a graceful bow. A cake holding nine candles formed the attractive centerpiece. Cream, cake and candy in the color motif, were served to the party of little friends.

The following clipping will be of interest to friends here, where Miss Schneider has visited, the guest of her Aunt, Mrs. Gabner.

SCHNEIDER-JACKSON

Miss Bernice Schneider and Phil- lip McBride Jackson were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conklin, on West Fourteenth street. A color scheme of pink and white was observed in the decorations of the house and the bride party were grouped before a handsome arrangement of palms and Easter lilies.

Miss Annie Maude Schneider was maid of honor, Miss Frances Conklin was bridesmaid, and Miss Elizabeth Low and Ruth Jolly were ribbon bearers. Little Hattie Schneider was ring bearer. The Sullen Brady was best man, and Dr. Charles Handel officiated.

The bridal gown was of airy white tulle draped over white netting suit, and made with the long court train. The corsage was formed of tulle and point applique lace and finished with a large butterfly bow of tulle. The bridal bouquet was of orchids and valley lilies and the tulle veil was adjusted from a lace cap.

A reception followed the ceremony, after which the bride and bridegroom left for the East.—Atlanta Georgian.

After a week of slight seeing and pleasure, Mrs. Annie Sullivan, of Dothan, Ala., who has been the attractive guest of Mrs. Mary Nordin, South Tennessee avenue has returned home. She declares she will return in the winter and bring her mother, Mrs. Whatley. She is charmed with our city.—Lakeland, (Fla.) Telegram.

APPETITE POOR

Multitudes of people lose their appetite. Simply don't care for eating. The dinner bell has no interest to them. They loathe their breakfast. They may nibble a little this and a little of that, but they don't care for it. Much has been said of the character of the food, but they try to eat something different about the same. There is something positively wrong, of course, but no disease that can be named. Just out of a little it is in this kind of a condition. Peruna is very beneficial after using Peruna. Interest is revived. Beginning with a little of Peruna before each meal generally quickly improves the appetite and helps the digestion. Thousands of people owe their freedom from a slavery that is not unendurable. The slavery of having no interest in life. All you need one does not know exactly. Take Peruna before each meal. It will get blue again. It will turn green once more and it will be pleasant. You will feel that you are good for something and the world is a good place to live in. Peruna does it. Not an artificial stimulant. Simply a tonic that stimulates the system in a natural way. Those who object to liquid medicine can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

ADLAND AVENUE BAPTIST.

W. T. S. Atkinson of Head will preach at the Adland Avenue Baptist Church tomorrow at 11, and tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

SEARCHING FOR HUSBAND YOUNG BRIDE BLOWN

Knobville, Tenn., June 1. Mr. Lloyd Williams, 41, left of 1 weeks and sister, Mrs. Doll Chapman, 17, were drawn into a trap by a young girl, who had left home the previous evening, and had returned with a husband. The girl had been blown by a young man who had been in the city for some time.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing. Relieved by Cardui.

At Any N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town says: "I suffered for five years, with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell. I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good. I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together."

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it.

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

At Any N. C.—Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Aid Society, Chattanooga, Tenn. Price, 25 cents. In 10 years' card 64 pages book. For treatment for women in English and Spanish. N. C. 124.
